CAPWELL'S FALL FASHION DISPLAY SHOWS DECIDED CHANGE IN WOMEN'S ATTIRE

Galaxy of H. C. Capwell mannequins who took part in the Autumn Revue of Winter Fashions last night in the Capwell store, Fourteenth and Clay streets. The revue was attended by several thousand persons. The preference shown black, for both street and dinner costumes, was one of the striking features of the show, with startling use of jet and beaded embroidery or fringe in the trimming.

Despite War Restrictions, Beautiful Garments Are Shown at Popular Department Store

Symbolic of the present day, the Fall Fashions, given their initial showing by the H. C. Capwell Department Store, Fourteenth and Clay streets, last evening were viewed by several thousand persons who assembled for the first display of patriotic modes. That the war has brought about decided changes in design was demonstrated last night, as well as the fact that the making of women's clothes in the present period of conflict does not require the use of any materials which the government might find essential for the army. Nets, laces, silks and satins, furs, velvet, duvetyne, velour de laine, with (tricotine) and serge in the minority are the materials from which women's garments are manufactured.

The revue of last night at Capwell's was distinctive of the many garments for service displayed; gowns and suits selected for council meetings, army and navy receptions, canteen service and other meetings in the interest of war. EFFECTIVE PANTOMIME.

The prologue was an effective pantomime with the three little maids of Olden Times greeting the queen of fashion radiant in cloth of gold. Then came, in turn, boudoir attire, garments for winter and sports wear, motoring and war service, for executive meetings, afternoon and dinner gowns and the modes for juniors and misses. Miss Marie Allen directed the dancing elves in their specialty.

There was elegance and simplicity in every line and the return of the Princess lines noted in the one-piece street frocks of tricotine or tricotette, or its suave weave, Paulette, with satins of every tone in the more sombre shades and qualities. The sleeves are tight and long and the skirts three inches from the floor to be correct, is the mandate of New York and Parisian designers. While as to width, the skirts are as narrow as could be, but with the art of the modiste so arranged as to allow for comfort and ease.

A smart array of winter coats have arrived, notably fur trimmed. This year on both tailcoats and wraps there is a rich use of the fur trimming. The sleeves are loose at the armholes with straight lines at the back and collars at the front. Soft draped girdles, shawl effect and muff cuffs, are smart. SQUIRREL LA VOGUE.

The modest little squirrel trimming of many seasons past has returned, many of the afternoon frocks being trimmed in the soft, furry bands. Mole, beaver, skunk and Hudson seal are the most popular, in many models, the upper part of the coat, formal entirely of the soft fur. And the shades, henna, terra cotta, bleu diable bleu, taupe, brown, garnet, Algerian, Delphine, beige, reindeer and Yankee brown, are a few of the most fascinating in the bolivia, pom poms, velours de laine or mixtures.

There was a rich taupe-gray pompon, a plumed model enriched with Hudson seal collar and cuffs.

A gray wrap of the pom pom material (one of the most favored) was made with the new narrow effect edged with Hudson seal and cape collar of the same.

A mixture-silverstone cloth—was striking with dark fox fur.

Fills Stomach With New Energy

Weak, Worn Out, Gassy, Sour Stomach Revived and Made to Enjoy Food With Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Most of us eat three times a day and often forget that each meal should be disposed of in the stomach to make room for the next. The failure of the stomach to do this is called indigestion or dyspepsia, with its sour risings, gas, rumblings, pain, depression and the feeling of stuffiness when breathing is difficult.

The most effective remedy and the most reliable one, because you can get it at any drug store in the United States or Canada, is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, at 50 cents a box. Instead of depriving yourself of food or going on a starvation diet simply keep on as usual and let these tablets straighten out your stomach, digest the food and keep you in the night.—Advertisement.

does stop itching and relieve eczema

Many sufferers from eczema or similar skin troubles have found Resinol Ointment invaluable in stopping the itching, in soothing and cooling the irritated skin, and in most cases, clearing the trouble away.

Its gentle, harmless ingredients make it safe for use on the tenderest skin, and it is so nearly flesh colored that it may be used without hesitation on exposed surfaces.

Ask your druggist for it.

Run-Down People
Vinol is What You Need

Weak, run-down nervous men and women need Vinol because it contains the most famous reconstructive tonics in an agreeable and easily digested form:—Beef and Cod Liver Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates and Glycero-phosphates.

We guarantee there is no tonic equal to Vinol.

Detroit, Mich.

"I got into a weak, run-down condition, no appetite, tired all the time and headaches—but had to keep about Vinol and tried it—within two weeks I commenced to improve, and now have a splendid appetite and feel stronger and better in every way."

Mrs. John F. Watson.

For all run-down, nervous, anemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol.

WAIT WORD ON HOLIDAY GIFTS GOING OVERSEAS

Relatives of soldiers in France are anxiously awaiting details of the plan whereby Christmas gifts may be shipped overseas. Word that the War Department is arranging for the forwarding of Christmas packages under a special ruling has been received by the traffic bureau of the Chamber of Commerce. Owing to the difficulties of shipment, there is a drastic ruling that no shipment of goods be made to any soldier save on personal request countersigned by an officer.

When Oakland postoffice officials said they have had no word from Washington regarding the shipment of Christmas gifts overseas, they declared they had no doubt such packages would be permitted to be sent.

The present rule that no soldier may receive a package unless he personally asks for it, his request to be officially approved by his major, does not apply to the navy. Nor does it apply to the soldiers of American allies.

on plans for raising $100,000,000 out of the waste of the nation.
The Oakland institute is the fourth which has been held in California, including the district adjacent to San Francisco bay, the coast counties and the Sonoma valley, to the number of 23 chapters. Reports showed that a monthly income of $50,000 is being derived now from the 197 chapters in this division through the salvage and shop.
With the national convention of BKS pledging for each of the 500,000 members a suit of clothes, the value of which is not to be less than $1; with the people of the state turning their trash into cash through unusual patriotic effort, the Pacific division is looking toward fulfilling its full quota of the $100,000,000.
The theory, and the practice of Red Cross shops, were the themes for today's session. The delegates will visit the storehouses and selling depots tomorrow for a demonstration. Among the speakers this morning were W. A. Grubb, William Popert and Mrs. E. A. Kluegel.

CLASSES TO TRAIN CIVIL EMPLOYEES

A number of classes in civil service preparation both for stenographers and for general clerks in the federal, state and municipal systems are being organized at the Technical High School. Courses are offered during both the afternoon and evening. Expert instructors have been employed for this work and a large number of students have already registered.
The government has sent out an urgent request for trained employees and the public schools desire to cooperate with the government to the fullest possible extent. Students desiring to secure additional information regarding these courses should report to Room 27, Technical High School, on any afternoon or evening.

Among the new features which have been added to the curriculum of the school, none has proved of more immediate service than the course in military tactics. This class meets on Friday evenings and embraces all the necessary training and drilling which men subject to draft should acquire without delay. Men who desire to take this work should report in Room 27, September 20, at 7:15 p. m.

PREVENTION OF FIRES TOPIC OF COAST CHIEFS

A general discussion of fires and their prevention was the order of business at this morning's session of the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs Association. Chief William H. Byington of Salt Lake City and others delivered addresses. Byington touched upon the topic of automatic fire fighters and will discuss the subject more extensively at this evening's session.

The session this morning was brief and somewhat informal. Adjournment for the day was taken at noon. This afternoon the delegates took an automobile ride about the city, following luncheon at the Hotel Oakland. At the luncheon J. H. Schivley spoke on "Fire Prevention During These Strenuous War Times." He was followed by Percy V. Long, who delivered an address on the war.

At 8 o'clock this evening the chiefs will meet in a round-table discussion. Their index will attend a theater party at the Orpheum.
The session tomorrow morning will be devoted to business matters and will be followed in the afternoon by visit to the shipyard. In the evening there will be a fire drill, following which the delegates will visit the land show.

Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock nomination of officers of the association will be the order of business. Adjournment will then be taken until 2 p. m., when balloting on the candidates will take place. At 3 o'clock the chiefs and their ladies will visit Neptune Beach.

Boy and Girl Held On Check Charge

Roy E. Jones, 20 years of age, and Mary Ruth Adams, 17 years of age, who were arrested last night in the Adams home at 507 Jefferson street, are being held by the police pending an investigation into the alleged passing by the two of a number of worthless checks in Oakland and San Francisco. The youth and the girl were taken into custody by Inspector Richard McSorley. The exact amount of the alleged bad checks is not known, but it is said that they were made out by Jones and passed by the girl. Four have been found in Oakland and one in San Francisco, according to the police.

Jones is a son of a deputy sheriff of Modesto and has been working in Oakland and making his home with the Adams family. The father of the girl is a brakeman employed on the Western Pacific railway and has been absent from home for some time.

THIN PEOPLE NEED BITRO- PHOSPHATE

How It Increases Weight, Strength and Nerve Force in Two Weeks' Time in Many Instances.

Take plain bitro-phosphate is the advice of physicians to thin, delicate nervous people who lack vim, energy and nerve force, and there seems to be ample proof of the efficacy of this preparation to warrant the recommendation. Moreover, we judge from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft, curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.
Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim that nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by The Owl Drug Co. and most druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance, the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy which nearly always accompany thinness, which is intensive and disappears, dull eyes become bright and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.
CAUTION—Although Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, owing to its marked flesh-growing properties it should not be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.—Advertisement.

At Death's Door

"I was talking with my neighbor, Mr. Webb, the other day regarding the great trouble his stomach had given him. He said he suffered seven or eight years, and had been almost at death's door a number of times from acute indigestion and bloating of gas, which seemed to shut off his heart action. He said he wouldn't have lived much longer if he hadn't taken Mayr's Wonderful Remedy when he did, which made a well man of him." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and always the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convalesce or money refunded. Osgood's Drug Stores and druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

Simplicity—the Keynote

If you look at shoes through the eyes of Fashion you will find none smarter than these charming Oxfords with military heels. If you look at them through the eyes of Thrift you will be convinced that splendid values may still be had at reasonable prices. The sacrifices necessary to the winning of the war do not mean the sacrifice of individuality and snap in footwear. The elimination of unnecessary labor and the release of man-power is what the Government wants. And such elimination means greater simplicity in style. Distinction, not shabbiness, is the result of war time regulation.

Here is a model in black patent leather which is just the thing for wear with strictly tailored suits. Its claim for distinction lies in its smart lines and snappy Cuban heel. The price—$14. Other very similar models in brown patent, in gunmetal and tan Russia calf, in black and in grey kid range in price from $7.50 to $14.

For Men Who Want Style, Simplicity and Comfort

Our Men's Department has a complete selection of just the sort of shoes the men folks must have this season—stylish, sturdy and comfortable.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cox of Claremont have sent out cards announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Frisella Rugg, and John Taylor Armstrong, of the Aviation Corps, U. S. A. The cards were received today telling of the betrothal of Miss Rugg, who is one of the most popular of the younger girls yet in school. The bride-elect is now a student at the Arts and Crafts School in Berkeley, and formerly attended the Berkeley High School with her fiancée, where the romance had its inception several years ago.

Armstrong is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armstrong of Berkeley, and before his enlistment in the aviation service attended White's preparatory school. He received his training in one of the camps near St. Paul, Minnesota, and is now en route to England for further training.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Starkweather of Bowditch street, Berkeley, announce the marriage of their daughter, Annie Elizabeth, and Allen Clyde Smith. The wedding took place in Des Moines, Iowa, where the bridegroom is in the officers' training camp. Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Miss Barnard's School of Berkeley and has many friends on both sides of the bay. While Mr. Smith is in active service, his bride will make her home in the college city.

Friday afternoon a group of the younger matrons who have been studying French at their informal gatherings will be guests at the home of Mrs. Carl Brougher. Among those who meet regularly for the study of the language are Mrs. Clarence Loran Johnston, Mrs. Frederick Hink, Mrs. S. V. Carter, Mrs. Thomas P. Hogan, Mrs. Glenn C. Barnhart, Mrs. J. McClymonds and one or two others.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Steele (Marguerite Ogden), who are en route to California from the east, have reached Seattle, Washington, and expect to arrive in the bay region the first of the month. Mrs. Steele has been in the east since her marriage to the young attorney. Lieutenant Frank Ogden, U. S. A., has gone to Siberia, where he was ordered to do service.

Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Thomas P. Hogan will open her home for the benefit of the free bed at the Providence Hospital. Miss Jane Urban will assist the hostess in entertaining her guests with a musical program. This is the first of a series of teas to be given for the cause by the board of directors of the association. The society is giving its time to war service this year and so has planned the benefits to help maintain the free bed for the benefit of the families, the men of whom are in the service.

Recent communications received by Miss Sara Barker of the California relief for Belgium and France committee from Mrs. Vernon Kellogg, secretary of the association, tell of the dire need of aid for the children in Belgium, who, unless relief comes at once, must be sent back into occupied territory. A cable just received appeals for money for a shelter for 200 children. Even five hundred or a thousand dollars sent to the Belgian legation at Washington, D. C., would help relieve the situation. All through the United States branch committees are contributing funds. The Oakland-Piedmont branch is to send its bit and to raise it the Belgian fete is planned for Saturday with Mrs. Geo. C. Who Says Unfathered Babies?

By TORREY CONNOR

Mrs. Mary Austin, author, of "Carmel, N. Y.," and elsewhere, asks what single women are going to do for babies when the war is over—beg pardon! Perhaps it was not stated quite so baldly; such, however, was the tenor of her text.

The problem which this author sets forth is, indeed, a distressing one. It clamors to be heard. Not a solitary (prospective) single woman has been heard to clamor, as yet; but when she begins, Mrs. Austin will be right there with the remedy. Not that she intends to assume sole responsibility in this crisis—no indeed. Our great and good President Wilson has been equal to everything passed up to him thus far. Why not let him wrestle with this question for a couple of rounds?

So, "To study the problem of the surplus women expected to result from the war, a commission of five representative women of the country—four with Mrs. Austin—should be appointed by President Wilson." The average, or garden, intellect is often paralyzed in an effort to follow the seriously unscientific efforts of serious persons to run the world.

"One woman loses her chance of motherhood for every man who loses his life on the battlefield. That is, unless unmarried motherhood is to be recognized."

There you have it! In "recognition" the matter is settled off-hand. But is it? Mrs. Austin says nothing of the single man who loses his chances of fatherhood in dying on the battlefield. The time calls for such sad, heroic, splendid sacrifices of young, untitled lives. But does it not also call for supreme sacrifice on the part of women? And what a travesty on the consummation of love is "unmarried motherhood!"

Whatever claims Mrs. Austin makes for the plan she advocates, she must admit that it lacks originality. In Kulturland, where Prussianism decrees that "population shall increase at a certain rate without regard to social origin," in Kulturland, or religion, recognition of "unmarried motherhood" has been in effect for some time. Soldiers on leave are billeted in villages, or the women are sent to "rest houses" behind the lines, where the soldiers meet them; and the complaints of the potential mothers is urged on the ground of "loyalty." Such temporary unions are "recognized" as a state measure.

But it is the period after the war that engages Mrs. Austin's attention, and for which she counsels preparation. How, then, does she propose to go about the business of bringing unfathered children into the world? It would seem that this were a problem for the biologist to take hold of, rather than for "a representative woman" to tackle. Of course, we might turn Mormon; but that would hardly be popular with the ladies. It is safe to predict that women voters would never send to Congress or the Senate the female propagandist who advocated the sharing of a husband with other women.

Granting this difficulty bridged, what about the children? Who is going to care for these unfathered ones? Buy Boy Scout shoes, roller coasters and "three squares" for Johnny and blue hair ribbons, canton dannel nighties, ice cream cones and her "three squares" for sister Mary? The answer, of course, is: "The state." While these human destiny specialists are arranging our life program they are making a thorough job of it. So bring on your babies! "The state" will do the rest.

Let us try to think forward to the time when "unmarried motherhood," receiving "recognition," fathers will be as rare as the pink-whiskered megalomaniac. "The state" will relieve the parent of responsibility so far as the "three squares," education and similar matters are concerned. Mother needn't bother about Johnny and Mary; she isn't especially necessary to them—after they get heads. Having no father to teach him to fly kites and aspire to the presidency of the United States, Johnny will doubtless take to embroidering dollies in competition with sister Mary. A few generations of this may evolve a neuter sex. Who can say?

But let us come down to earth again.

It may be that the state can turn out a better article than that which is "home-grown." Unless you are a propagandist, however, you are not going to believe this. The tender sacrifices, great and small, that parents make for their children, the responsibilities, moral and material, which they assume, make them worthy of parentage. There is no growth in parenthood without the responsibility of parenthood.

"For this we have been led down grief's long lane."

For this we dreamed upon the hills of youth.

For this (deaths melted into pain)

And brave hopes faded of the yoke of truth—

That, worthy, we might hold a dimpled hand

And pray that we might always understand."

"Bigger than the problem of women in industry, or the possibility of an industrial and social revolution, the point of view of the labor union, is the problem of women in relation to men," says Mary Austin. "The ratio of the sexes here was disproportional before the war. If there is no reason brought forward why single women should not have children, they will have them. That reason must be stated clearly to the women of the nation and be a sound one."

Getting right down to brass tacks, Mrs. Austin, there are many reasons why this idea of yours should not be sponsored by "representative"—or otherwise—"women of the country." The chief and unanswerable reason is: Each child born into the world has A RIGHT to a father.

FOR THE RED CROSS.

For the benefit of the Red Cross a concert is to be given next week at the Lagunitas Country Club under the direction of Mrs. E. L. Griffith and Frank Latham of the Ross Valley chapter. Miss Audrey Bear, pianist of this city, and Miss Emily Lane of Alameda, contralto, are to give the program together.

WOMEN of ALAMEDA COUNTY AND THEIR WORK

By GEORGIA G. BORDWELL

In view of the acute situation as to the needs of war nurses, it has been decided by the Red Cross to recruit nurses' aids from the women who have successfully completed the courses in First Aid, Elementary Hygiene and Home Care of the Sick, which are being conducted by the local chapters.

After completing the course, applicants for positions in France will be sent to a hospital for 240 hours' practical experience. A conversational knowledge of French is imperative. Applications should be made to the Educational Committee, Oakland Chapter, Dr. Eugene May, chairman.

At the next meeting of the Health and Recreation Department of the Women's Committee, Council of Defense, which will be held at 420 Central Bank Building, Friday, 2 p. m., Mrs. Katherine Isenhardt, for five years police woman in San Francisco, will tell the committee what has been done and what can be done for the protection of young girls.

Alameda County Educational Association, 1900 strong, voted this week to add its strength to the Women's Legislative Council of California, and pledged itself to work for the proposed Legislative bill which will call for a redistribution of the school money. The Association expects soon to have 2000 members, and with women's associations waking up to the fact that in union there is strength, the Legislative Council is quickly assuming proportions that any delegate for office will have to reckon with. The Council now numbers more than 80,000 women.

The annual meeting of Oakland Central Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held on Monday all day at the Y. W. C. A.

The organization has divided its activities into six branches: Care of the Soldiers and Sailors, Relief, Women in Industry, Race Betterment, Moral Education, Legislation and Americanization.

The annual election resulted in the new list of officers as follows: Miss Jennie Lind Redfield, president; Mrs. Sturdevant Post, vice-president; Mrs. S. C. Portland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Haines, recording secretary; Mrs. D. L. Cose, treasurer, and Mrs. M. B. Gillespie, auditor.

A program of music was followed by an address by L. W. Huston on the war work accomplished by the organization.

A three weeks' campaign of moral education and race betterment is about to be started in the schools, the clubs and the churches of Oakland by the W. C. T. U. under Dr. Sarah E. Wise as lecturer.

The first meeting of the California Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Association, Mrs. Edna R. Atken president, will take place Thursday afternoon, September 19, at the St. Francis Hotel. The meeting was postponed from last week that it might not interfere with the attendance at the Council of Defense conference.

Fremont High School Mothers' Club, Mrs. C. E. Wilson president, will meet Thursday in the music room of the school, for the discussion of business.

Shelden to Direct War Stamp Work

George E. Shelden, traffic manager of the Key Route and a director of the Chamber of Commerce, has been named director-general of War Savings Stamp campaigns in this county, succeeding H. C. Capwell, president of the Chamber of Commerce, whose other war work makes it impossible to give the detailed attention needed to this phase of the government's activities. Hereafter the drives will be made under the direction of the State Council of Defense, Shelden announced today.

The proposed new ordinance regulating the operation of taxi-cabs, introduced by Mayor Davis sometime ago, by request was laid on the table by the City Council today. Two factions were interested in the ordinance.

BOY SCOUT DRIVE IS GIVEN SUPPORT

The Boy Scouts' Fund Drive was the principal topic of the day at the luncheon of the Manufacturers' Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, held today in the Commercial Club Grill. John A. MacGregor, president of the Bathing Shipbuilding Company, was the speaker of the afternoon. He urged that the business men of Oakland support the drive as a means of building better citizenship, and Jack Gompertz, a Boy Scout, spoke on the work done by the organization. Former Senator George Cartwright of Fresno, author of the Cartwright Law, concluded the affair with a discussion of labor problems. Postmaster J. J. Roseborough presided. Every parent and every family, said MacGregor, "is interested in the welfare of the children, and the community, which is but an aggregation of families, is equally interested. Among the agencies for the betterment of the future manhood of America the Boy Scouts' organization is pre-eminent. It has shown splendid results with little expenditure, and will prove one of the greatest assets the nation has in the future."

STUDENTS AT MILLS VOTE TO BE WAITRESSES

Noodle soup has lost some of its Oriental flavor at Mills College and is almost strictly American. No longer is it served with a mellifluous "violet good soup, missee," accompanied by an obsequious bow by silent, plant-eyed waitresses. For Mills College today loses an institution almost as old as itself in the replacing of Chinese waiters by college students. Students of war conditions has made it impossible to secure Chinese help. With the dormitories filled to overflowing, the situation became serious. An emergency measure to save the student body, by a unanimous vote, last night decided that every girl should in turn serve her fellow students in the dining room. The college women have one consolation for the loss of the Chinese waiters that have served for two generations in the dining room at Mills. The college administration has agreed to turn over to the full amount formerly devoted to the dining room service to the student body for Red Cross and other war activities.

More Minute Men To Organize Here

Five new companies of "Minute Men" are to be organized in Oakland, officers of the organization announced today. The minute men are to meet on Thursday nights at the city hall, where drillmasters instruct the men in the fundamentals of military training. Men of from 18 to 45 desiring preliminary military experience have been specially invited to attend the meetings.

Mrs. Lavenson Is Named on Committee

Mrs. A. S. Lavenson has been appointed by Judge Daniel C. Dwyer, member of the Probation Committee of Alameda county. The committee is constituted by law and given supervision of the juvenile matters and the charge of the Detention Home. Mrs. Lavenson has been a member of the committee before and has a very general knowledge of the conditions with which the committee is concerned.

ARE NAMED DEPUTIES. John A. Gray and John H. Muller were today appointed by the city council, on recommendation of Commissioner F. F. Jackson, to fill the two new positions of deputy food inspectors. The salary is $125 a month.

ARTIST HELD FOR NOT REGISTERING

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18. — Alfred Harms, 2332 Channing way, Berkeley, artist and University of California student and formerly a janitor in the anatomy building, was held to the Federal grand jury on bonds of $2000 by United States Commissioner Francis Krull following a hearing here today on a charge that Harms refused to register for the draft last Thursday. He is 31.

RECOUNT SOUGHT BY J. H. GILLARD

To what degree the primary election boards were inefficient in recording and counting votes will be determined in the recount demanded by James H. MANUFACTURERS TO GET U. S. DATA

A schedule for meetings to consider the war needs of the government in different manufacturing lines has been arranged by P. J. Walker, recently appointed chairman for District No. 2, Region 19, resources and conservation section of the War Industries Board, covering this country. The meetings will be held at the Oakland Chamber of Commerce as follows:

SIX-CENT CAR TICKETS TO BE ISSUED HERE

Responding to a request by a large number of patrons, the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway Company is planning the issuance of a "Car ticket." These tickets, sold in blocks of five or 20 cents, ten for 60 cents and up to fifty for $3. The date of issuance has not been decided and it is not settled whether the tickets will be held on the cars or at certain designated places. The tickets, it is calculated, will save time and trouble and will expedite traffic. The issuance of tickets is not due to a shortage of pennies, officials of the company saying that there is an ample number of pennies available.

Declares Husband Is Her Father's Brother

Alleging that her husband is her father's brother, Mrs. Louise Darbo filed suit today in the office of the county clerk asking for annulment of the marriage, which was contracted in Norway in 1901. The couple have five children. Since coming to California the Darbos have lived in San Francisco, where they own a home. The mother asks custody of the five children.

CUTICURA HEALS TERRIBLE ITCHING

On Face, Soon Spread, Lost Sleep and Was Disfigured.

"My skin trouble began on my face, and I thought it was a cold sore. The itching and burning was terrible and I began scratching and it soon spread all over my face. I lost much sleep and my face was very much disfigured. I tried many remedies but to no avail before I used Cuticura. I used only three boxes of Cuticura Ointment when I was healed." (Signed) Miss Harriet Ford, 370 E. 34th St., Portland, Ore.

Thousands of people, young and old, suffer torture of body and mind because of skin troubles which might easily be cleared away, or might have been prevented had Cuticura Soap been used for every-day toilet purposes with a touch now and then of Ointment.

Sample Each Free by Mail. Address post-card: "Cuticura," Dept. 5, P. O. Box 177, Portland, Me.

Real Wonder-Worker For Wrinkled Faces

Those who have tried all sorts of so-called "wrinkle-removers" to a vain effort to lose those unwelcome traces of age, illness or worry, can scarcely find words to express their delight with the wonderful Cuticura formula. One who has given it a trial. The success of this method is not alone to be ascribed to its marvelous effectiveness—upon the deepest lines and crow's feet, as well as upon the very fine lines which are so annoyingly quick action and its entire harmlessness. Its simplicity and its invulnerability to the elements are its features, for one need only dissolve an ounce of powdered Cuticura in a half pint of water, wash the face with this solution. At once a remarkable transformation is beheld.

It is not only the effect on wrinkles and creases that is so noticeable, but facial contour is remarkably improved and the face looks much younger. One should be sure to ask the druggist for the powdered Cuticura. The lotion, being so refreshing, is especially grateful to tired faces.—Advertisement.

SENATOR LODGE'S ADDRESS.

One of the first set speeches of United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts since he assumed the Republican floor leadership as a successor to the late Senator Gallinger was delivered yesterday in the Senate. New England's senior senator gave unqualified endorsement of the reply of President Wilson to the Austrian peace note. Senator Lodge's utterances carry great weight with the country, particularly upon questions of foreign policy. With twenty-five years' service in the senate and as ranking minority member of the foreign relations committee, no member stands higher or is more universally respected.

Senator Lodge struck a responsive note when he declared that only when Prussian militarism was crushed and the Germans threw up their hands would the United States and her allies announce terms of peace.

"Until complete victory is reached on German soil," he declared, "any negotiations or discussion with our enemies would mean that the war was lost, our sacrifices in vain and our high purposes defeated."

Calling attention to the unnumbered woes Germany has brought upon an innocent world, Senator Lodge urged that America demand that she be placed in a position where she cannot strike again. Having appealed to the lust of conquest and the dread arbitrament of arms, by that she must abide.

"We mean to put her in physical bonds. We mean to make the world safe for free, law-abiding, decent people so that they may live their lives in peace, unthreatened and unalarmed. For this we fight. We shall not ask more. We shall never accept less."

Senator Lodge's address reflected credit upon the Republican party which he so ably leads in the United States Senate. How much more effective and timely a speech of this character than the utterances of certain colleagues which have been characterized by captious criticism and intense partisanship.

POSSIBILITIES OF THE AIRPLANE.

Mr. Handley Page, an Englishman, who has made of air navigation, and especially war craft, a study, has given some interesting figures as to what is likely to result in air navigation immediately after the war. The time consumed in mail transit between London and Constantinople has been seventy-two hours. He says it will be reduced to twenty. Rome can be reached in twelve and one-half hours instead of forty-two. And he is convinced that the service can be performed both for mails and passengers on a schedule of rates little in excess of those charged by rail.

It is certain that air carriage will have great development immediately this war ends. There will be thousands of airships that can be utilized commercially, and armies of men trained to aviation work who will seek commercial jobs. But the experience here in mail carrying does not as yet warrant the extreme optimism that Mr. Page manifests. Not as good time has been made between Chicago and New York with a load of mail as was expected, and the cost of such transportation approaches the prohibitive as far as its competition with ordinary carriage. There is no doubt, however, that time will be reduced, as experience makes it practicable to eliminate those obstacles that make for delay. There is less optimism as to cheapness, though that consideration is more or less problematic. But it is argued that for a considerable time airplane carriage will be reserved for high-class and emergency service.

There is no justification of pessimism as to the ultimate, however. The automobile was at first a mere novelty. Its utility was scoffed by the horseman. But it was not long in demonstrating its usefulness as a passenger carrier, and in good time the auto truck fairly put the horse out of business. This was contingent on a policy of road building more comprehensive than that which had characterized the public effort for the whole preceding fifty years. The airplane will have no such contingency to meet.

While the war may be interfering with the commercial development of air navigation, it is in reality serving to promote a sudden and very extensive general development immediately peace is declared by the amazing demonstration of its possibilities, and the training of an army of operatives, not only in mechanical expertness but in intrepidity.

STEPHEN GIRARD.

The first biography of Stephen Girard has just been published, though he has been dead eighty-seven years, and though he was a most striking character and died the richest American of his time. He was an American by adoption, having been born in France. He started life as a cabin boy, and ended it a merchant, banker, Croesus and philanthropist.

The popular interest in Girard centers in his bequest to endow a college in Philadelphia, the city of his adoption. It would appear that this disposition of his wealth was suggested by philanthropic acts of his life, wherein, after a visitation of yellow fever to his adopted city, he took personal charge of some two hundred orphans left by the epidemic. His wealth amounted to $7,000,000, a sum relatively greater than that left by any later day philanthropist. After a number of private bequests (he was never married) he left the residue and bulk of his estate, amounting to some $5,000,000, for the endowment of a college for poor white orphans of the city of Philadelphia.

Orthodoxy was strong in the succeeding half-century, and consequently one provision of this bequest has been more or less misinterpreted. It has been quite generally represented that through atheistic tendencies he forbade the employment, or even entrance to the college precincts, of men of the cloth. An examination of the terms of his bequest shows that he did this so the inmates could be free to choose for themselves after they came to an age when they could understand. They were to be left to embrace "such religious tenets as their matured reason might lead them to adopt"; and to secure this end he interdicted the employment in the college, or even admission to the grounds, of any ecclesiastic whatever.

It has also been said that little is heard of this institution because of this inhibition. What is more probable is that its rather narrow foundation, matriculates being restricted to male orphans resident of the city of Philadelphia, is the cause for the modest position it occupies among the more richly endowed educational institutions.

The history of the college is remarkable on its financial side. The endowment was safeguarded by the most minute instructions, from the architecture of the buildings to the bringing up of its inmates, who are to be "instructed in the purest principles of morality, so that on their entrance to public life they may evince benevolence toward their fellow-creatures, and a love for truth, sobriety and industry." As to the investment of the endowment fund, the donor was particularly hard-headed. It amounted, as has been stated, to some $5,000,000 at the outset. All expense and expansion of the institution have been met, notwithstanding which the endowment has grown until at the present time it approximates $93,000,000.

The Chamber of Commerce of Ardmore, Pa., has established an advertising censorship to get rid of the advertising grafter, to foster legitimate advertising and protect legitimate advertisers. The readiness of everybody to help patriotic schemes, and the lack of discrimination when it is represented that a scheme is in furtherance of a war drive, afford the advertising grafter an opportunity such as he seldom enjoys. The same ground is covered here by rules and regulations of the Council of Defense. But people are so anxious to assist anything that will help win the war that once in awhile they still fall for surreptitious graft.

The Peruvian chamber of deputies has voted down a declaration of war on Germany. Almost a year ago that country severed diplomatic relations with the Hun country, and though abundant provocation for extreme action is acknowledged, the severing of relations is considered sufficient to demonstrate the republic's displeasure over the sinking of its ships and other unfriendly action. Peru always has displayed a Hun tinge, and this action is not greatly surprising.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

Here is a pretty kettle of fish. Maine held an election last Monday when no one was looking.

A few years ago the eyes of the whole country were turned toward Maine during the first week in September of every even numbered year, and on the morning after the first Monday after the first Tuesday, there was a rush for the morning paper to see how Maine "went."

Do you recall the election of 1854 and of 1896, how Maine was regarded as the political barometer of the country?

"As Maine goes in September the country will go in November," was the slogan.

It is the last state to hold out for the early election. Vermont held to the practice of a September election until 1914, and then changed the date to November, but Vermont never was a doubtful state, and therefore, Republican ticket as regularly as it paid taxes, and its September majorities had little effect upon the campaign throughout the country. But Maine is different. Maine sometimes goes Democratic, particularly if there is a landslide against the Republican party.

But this year Maine held an election without attracting sufficient attention to cause a ripple of excitement. However, if there was anything in the old tradition as to the vote in Maine, the Republicans have all the best of it this year. For if Maine overlooked giving the Republicans everything in sight at Monday's election, it appears to have been an accident, and whatever the Democrats saved out of the wreck was not regarded as worth a place in the election news items.—Kansas City Times.

That most emphatic "No" must have struck Vienna ere this with full impact. This is no time to parley. The American president was set by one of its illustrious warriors when he replied, "No terms but unconditional surrender will be considered. I propose to move immediately on your works!"

The political doctors who are diagnosing and prescribing for the fabric party that has been confining alternated with sunbursts and heat without result are numerous, and their efforts are not without interest. They disagree, however, as doctors proverbially do.

The freak rain did not do as much damage as was feared. This may have been due to the fact that it was copious. Fierce showers that alternated with sunbursts and heat would undoubtedly have hurt the fruit that was curing and ripening worse than a rain that was steady till it was through.

It will take four weeks to repair Webster-street bridge, to the very acute interruption of traffic, especially that automobile traffic that gets the ship workers in and from their jobs. The considerableness of it may be judged from the field of parked machines now to be seen in the vicinity of the shipyard entrances during working hours.

The annals of twenty-five years ago, appearing in an out-of-town paper, contain an account of the finding at Adams Point of a castle "walled with bricks, supposed to have been the resort of pirates in early days." Recollection of the find justifies an elucidation to the effect that somebody came upon the remains of an old brickyard and explored the remnants of one of the arches.

WATER RATES ARE ASSAILED; PROBE ENDED

By HARRY L. SULLY.

The appeal of the Eastbay cities for a rehearing of the water rate case was submitted after an all-day session in San Francisco yesterday of the State Railroad Commission at which counsel for the municipalities fought without success to get certain evidence before the commission that would go to prove the injustice of the present increased rates. Decision by the commission is now being awaited.

The commission declined to place its own hydraulic engineers upon the witness stand to show the results of their independent investigation of the present water shortage, although an appeal by Attorney John S. Partridge, special water rate counsel for Oakland, made that this course should be taken. No testimony was taken yesterday as to the cause of the drastic curtailment of water by the city of Oakland, and the East Bay Water Company in its own behalf at the previous hearing a week ago was permitted to stand as the only data before the commission or the public touching upon this situation. Attorneys for the cities urged that if the company had been negligent in meeting its responsibilities by failing to take proper precautions to avoid a shortage when the rate-payers should not be penalized for this condition.

URGE RATE REVISION.

Representatives of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda were unanimous in urging the Railroad Commission to revise the rates by setting aside the service charge of $2 a month for the use of the water meter in addition to the quantity charge for water. Attorney B. D. M. Greene of Berkeley said that he had also been authorized to speak for Richmond in urging that the service charge be removed, and that the commission return to the $1 minimum schedule as worked out in the first decision of the Railroad Commission.

President Edgerton of the Railroad Commission declared that the objection to the service charge was "largely psychological."

"There is in fact an actual service charge concealed in the minimum charge," Edgerton said. "I cannot see what difference it can make to the consumers whether the service charge is made in the form of a minimum, or is labeled a 50-per cent service charge. It is there just the same, and has got to be paid."

The point was raised that a service charge was legitimate only when the company was prepared to give service, and it was contended that during the past month the company has so limited its service that the extra charge should be set aside. Attorney Greene also declared that if the consumer was told, as in the case of this service charge, that before he had used any water at all there would be a charge of 50 cents a month against him, and that after that there was no minimum on the amount of water he would use, there would be an undue restriction for the use of water by consumers for the sake of economy and enough for cleanliness and sanitation would not be used.

CONSUMPTION IS LAW.

"In other words, domestic consumers will use less and less water to get down as close to $1 water as possible," said Greene. "I almost every sanitary and hydraulic engineer who has been before this water company has testified that the water consumption per capita in the Eastbay cities is at present abnormally low, because of the high rates. Under the $1 minimum, giving the consumer about 400 cubic feet of water a month, there was an assurance that enough would be used for cleanliness

Governorship Puzzle to Be Solved by Court on Friday

Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan was today directed by the State Supreme Court to appear at 10 o'clock Friday morning to show cause why a writ of mandate should not issue requiring him to place the name of Francis J. Heney on the November ballot as the Democratic gubernatorial candidate. At the same time the court ruled that the petition of Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco be joined with that of Frank N. Rodgers, said to be on "all fours" with that of Rolph. The Rolph-Rodgers case was also set down for argument Friday morning, giving rise to the hope that there will be a speedy adjudication by the court of the tangle over the gubernatorial candidate.

Action in Heney's case was taken on the basis of an application filed yesterday for a writ of mandate, in which it was contended that Mayor Rolph was disqualified, that Heney as second highest in the official list is therefore the legal candidate, and that if the court holds that there is a vacancy despite the previous contentions and the fact that Heney has been named candidate by the Democratic State Central Committee, the court should order that Heney be placed on the ballot.

and sanitation. Under the service charge-plus-quantity rate, the consumer gets only 200 cubic feet of water a month for 56 cents, and he's going to try to get his consumption down to that figure or lower, but that is not enough for the average family for the normal uses of life."

"I cannot see how it is the function of this commission to see that people take baths or use enough water for sanitation by fixing a minimum charge," answered Edgerton.

Edgerton expressed doubt as to the contention of Greene and Partridge that there is a general objection to the service charge in the Eastbay district.

FOR DIRECT COMPLAINTS.

Attorney Greene urged today that in Berkeley ratepayers who have complaints to make concerning their water bills or other difficulties with the water company will be aided to take the matter up direct with the Railroad Commission. The same course will probably be pursued in Oakland.

"In this way, there will be brought to the commission direct knowledge of the feeling of the consumers on this side of the bay," said Greene. "While there was some chance that we could promise the ratepayers there might be a revision of the new schedule, we did not advise them to bother the commission with their individual complaints. However, we shall now recommend them to take their troubles direct to the commission itself."

Counsel for the Eastbay cities attacked not only the service charge, but the failure of the Railroad Commission in basing the new rate schedule, not upon the actual value of the properties used and useful for water producing purposes, and the capital invested in the plant for these purposes, but upon the financial needs of the company at the present time, as shown in statements made at conferences between officials of the company and members of the Railroad Commission.

"Had the cities known that the Railroad Commission was going to disregard the usual factors in rate fixing matters, and base its decision upon the immediate financial needs of the company, they might have saved themselves the expenditure of considerable sums of money used in employing counsel, in bringing expert witnesses as to structural valuations, cost of maintenance and of almost every sanitary and hydraulic engineer who has been before this water company has testified that the water consumption per capita in the Eastbay cities is at present abnormally low, because of the high rates. Under the $1 minimum, giving the consumer about 400 cubic feet of water a month, there was an assurance that enough would be used for cleanliness mittee, that any provisions of the law that might be interpreted to create such a vacancy on the ticket are unconstitutional.

The Rolph-Rodgers brief, submitted by the Democratic State Central Committee, attacks the constitutionality of the 1917 law with reference to the filling of vacancies, in that it gives the State Central Committee power to fill a vacancy only where death of a candidate may have occurred after the primary, and declares that such an interpretation of the law would disfranchise the party.

PLATFORMS ADOPTED

Conventions held in Sacramento last night by the state parties resulted in the adoption of platforms for the coming election.

The Republican State Convention early this morning adopted a platform including a plank favoring ratification of the proposed national bone dry amendment. At this time the "wet" delegates had withdrawn, and the vote was 72 for and none against adoption.

A lively fight had been engaged in all day yesterday and late into the night between the "wets" and the "drys," resulting in a final victory for the latter. The bone-dry amendment endorsement on the first vote, before the withdrawal of the "wets," was by a vote of 66 to 32.

The Republican platform pledges the support of the party to the commander-in-chief of the Nation in pressing the war to a successful conclusion in peace with victory; and denounces in strong terms the activities of the I. W. W. On the subject of state government and commissions, the platform urges economy, consolidation and readjustment of the commissions; but it is alleged that these commissions should not be crippled in their work on any spurious plea of economy. Government ownership of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines is urged, but it is made the subject of a special warning that precautions should be taken to prevent the use of these great utilities as a political asset to continue any political party.

WIN THE WAR FIRST

Governor Stephens addressed the convention last night and declared that the most important business before the people is the winning of the war. He pledged the people that there will be rigid economy in the state administration during his term. He said in part:

"Since the beginning of the war there has been a tremendous stirring of the public conscience all over the country and a desire to have our conduct so as to promote both private and public efficiency, and thus aid in winning speedy victory. liquor sentiment. I earnestly and wholeheartedly favor and advocate the ratification of the national dry amendment, and sincerely hope that California will be enrolled among the states that are standing for this great national movement.

"We always have known what to do with an open enemy, and we are fast learning how to deal with the sneaking, despicable enemy at home. Any individual who seeks to obstruct or defeat any part of our war work is a traitor to America and should be treated as such. This story just being revealed of Germany's purchase of the leaders of the Russian Bolsheviks shows the source as well as the purpose of much of the treasonable propaganda which has been spread in this country through the I. W. W. element. It will be my firm purpose to do everything within my power to stamp out every form of disloyal propaganda and to bring swift punishment to those guilty of treasonable practices."

DEMOCRATIC TENETS

The Democratic State Convention adopted a platform ratifying the action of the Democratic State Central Committee in San Francisco on September 11 in endorsing Francis J. Heney as Democratic candidate, and also containing planks ratifying and approving the course of the Congress of the United States in its policy toward the manufacture and use of alcoholic liquors.

A platform "regulating the aspirations of William D. Stephens and his methods to elect himself Governor of California" was adopted by the Progressive State Convention, of which five delegates were present, proxies being held for 30 others.

The prohibitionists, in their platform, condemned the State Viticultural Commission for using its official position to oppose prohibition, endorsed the national bone dry amendment, denounced the Rominger liquor regulatory measure, and pledged itself to winning the war.

"Trade war after the war was condemned in a plank of the Socialist platform, which declared that Government ownership without democratic management offered a greater menace than the "present system of capitalist exploitation."

Greetings were wired by Republican national leaders to the Republican convention, messages being received from William C. Hayes, chairman of the Republican National Committee, former President William H. Taft and Theodore Roosevelt.

Two liquor licenses were revoked and the sale of sealed packages of liquor was prohibited after 4 p. m. by the city council today upon recommendation of Commissioner F. F. Jackson when several matters pertaining to vice conditions in the city were brought to the attention of the council by Chief of Police J. H. Nedderman.

Upon direct instructions from the federal authorities Chief Nedderman recommended that the license held at a local amusement park be revoked owing to continued reports of "bootlegging" there among soldiers and sailors made by federal investigators. The Hunter Social Club at 468 Eighth street also lost its license on a report made by Corporal P. W. Brock that when he and Patrolman Steve Connelly raided the resort he found four women there contrary to orders pertaining to the operation of the club.

The resolution pertaining to the sale of beer and other liquors in package form is more drastic than the order made several months ago limiting from now on the sale of such goods by saloons and retail liquor stores only until 4 o'clock in the afternoon of all days except Saturday, when sales after 12 o'clock noon are permitted. The former order permitted sale until 8 o'clock on all days except Saturday, when the time was extended to 9 o'clock. The resolution further prohibits the delivery of liquor to homes after 7 o'clock in the evening, and no liquor shall be served in any hotel or rooming house to a room, any occupant of which is a soldier or sailor.

Referring to charges that have been published regarding disorderly houses in the city, Chief Nedderman in his report to the council today said in part:

"Those who made the charges could not, when requested to do so, give to the police department any evidence to show that there were any houses of ill-fame in the city of Oakland. They did, however, give certain addresses to the department of justice which they claimed were houses of ill-fame and upon investigation of these places they found that the information given by them was false in every case."

TIGHTEN BAN ON SALES OF LIQUOR HERE

Two liquor licenses were revoked and the sale of sealed packages of liquor was prohibited after 4 p. m. by the city council today upon recommendation of Commissioner F. F. Jackson when several matters pertaining to vice conditions in the city were brought to the attention of the council by Chief of Police J. H. Nedderman.

Upon direct instructions from the federal authorities Chief Nedderman recommended that the license held at a local amusement park be revoked owing to continued reports of "bootlegging" there among soldiers and sailors made by federal investigators. The Hunter Social Club at 468 Eighth street also lost its license on a report made by Corporal P. W. Brock that when he and Patrolman Steve Connelly raided the resort he found four women there contrary to orders pertaining to the operation of the club.

The resolution pertaining to the sale of beer and other liquors in package form is more drastic than the order made several months ago limiting from now on the sale of such goods by saloons and retail liquor stores only until 4 o'clock in the afternoon of all days except Saturday, when sales after 12 o'clock noon are permitted. The former order permitted sale until 8 o'clock on all days except Saturday, when the time was extended to 9 o'clock. The resolution further prohibits the delivery of liquor to homes after 7 o'clock in the evening, and no liquor shall be served in any hotel or rooming house to a room, any occupant of which is a soldier or sailor.

Referring to charges that have been published regarding disorderly houses in the city, Chief Nedderman in his report to the council today said in part:

"Those who made the charges could not, when requested to do so, give to the police department any evidence to show that there were any houses of ill-fame in the city of Oakland. They did, however, give certain addresses to the department of justice which they claimed were houses of ill-fame and upon investigation of these places they found that the information given by them was false in every case."

DAVIS TO BE AMBASSADOR TO ST. JAMES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—John W. Davis, solicitor-general of the United States, has been selected by President Wilson as American ambassador to Great Britain, it was officially announced today.

Davis, who is now en route to Bern, Switzerland, to confer with German representatives on questions involving the disposition and exchange of prisoners, is one of the less widely known but most popular officials of the Government.

Official confirmation of his selection for the post at the court of St. James, succeeding Walter Hines Page, resigned, was made today.

RED CROSS CALL.

RICHMOND, Sept. 18.—During the next few days the local Red Cross work will be busy making up shirts for soldiers. Mrs. E. B. Smallwood has issued a call for help tomorrow and next day.

honorable body, without fear of honest contradiction, that at no time during which said charges were published or for a long time prior thereto, has there been one single house of ill-fame in Oakland.

"As to the gambling charges, they are likewise absolutely false. I can, however, positively assure this council that there is now no illegal gambling carried on in any social club or elsewhere, nor are there any Chinese lottery houses running in the city of Oakland."

Indian Summer at Tahoe

September is a delightful month at Lake Tahoe. Deer, quail and grouse shooting. Flow in Truckee river reduced, resulting in excellent fly fishing. Auto roads benefited by recent rains. TAHOE TAVERN open until end of month.—Advertisement.

PUBLICITY IN BOND EFFORT TO BE UNIQUE

"Get your button!" "Back up the boys at the front!" The above two slogans will be used extensively during the coming campaign for the flotation of the Fourth Liberty Loan in Oakland and Alameda county, according to Glenn C. Barnhart, chairman of the publicity department of the Liberty Loan Committee.

For the period of the drive in this city and county the force of those two slogans will be driven home to every organization, firm and individual in the county, declares Barnhart, for the membership of the Oakland Ad Club, through a special appointed committee of that organization, is charged with the duty of seeing that the message is delivered to every person within the jurisdiction of the Liberty Loan Committee with such force that there can be no question about the significance of its meaning.

At a recent meeting of the Ad Club George A. Cummings was appointed chairman of the organization's special Liberty Loan Publicity Committee. This morning Cummings announced the appointment of the following departmental committee: men who will be in charge of the various features of the Liberty Loan publicity and advertising campaign:

K. L. Hamman, newspaper advertising; George A. Hughes, outdoor advertising; A. T. Golding, window display advertising; Robert Hart, land, automobile advertising; Arthur Hargrave, meetings and stunt features; George Sheldon, street-car advertising.

COLD BROUGHT ON RHEUMATISM

Pain is the symptom of rheumatism that every victim recognizes but the physician approves that this blood is a marked characteristic of the disease. Trying to cure rheumatism while the blood remains thin and weak is an almost impossible task, because there is nothing to build on.

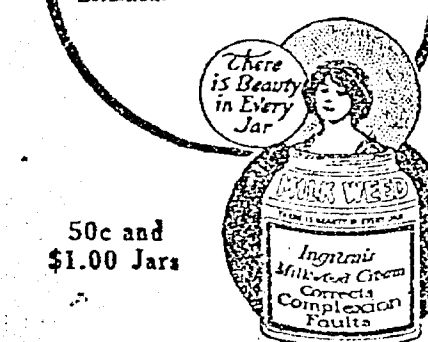

Mr. Harry L. Seaver of 69 Union street, Lynn, Mass., a carpenter, was subject to rheumatic attacks, and his experience will interest others who suffer in that way. Mr. Seaver says: "I had rheumatism off and on for twenty years. My work at one time kept me out in all kinds of weather, and dampness and exposure caused my affliction. I had dull aching pains in the left shoulder and in the right knee. They were so severe at times that they made it impossible for me to rest at night. I suffered with headache, had dizzy spells and was nervous. My stomach was out of order. I learned of a person who had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a treatment for rheumatism, and this decided me to try them. They helped me and relieved me of pain. They have never failed in my case and I have recommended them to many others."

In no disease does the blood show more altering and thinning than in rheumatism. No permanent relief is possible until the blood is restored and the rheumatic poisons are cast out.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at the nearest drug store wherever you may live, or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, upon receipt of price, fifty cents per box, or boxes for two dollars and a half by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Send for the free pamphlet "Building Up the Blood."

Food-Sellers Must Post Profits Prices Paid and Charged Listed End Profiteering, Charge of U.S.

The pleading of food prices, showing prices paid and prices charged the consumer, as adopted for its policy by the new Oakland Municipal War Market, is to become general in all war markets and stores in Oakland, as the result of a new food administration order.

As a means of preventing profiteering Federal Food Commissioner Ralph P. Merritt has instructed all dealers throughout the state to list their lending staples, with prices paid and prices charged the consumer. All vegetable dealers will also come under the rule. The consumer can at a glance tell just what profit the dealer is making on any article of foodstuff, under the new plan, the food administration holds. Severe penalties will be meted out to any dealer falsifying such food lists.

LISTS BEING MADE OUT. The Food Administration is making out lists of basic maximum prices covering all licensed foodstuffs, and wholesalers, commission men and retailers will all be effected under the general rules adopted. Trained inspectors will be stationed in every city to protect the buying public.

Any case where profiteering is discovered will meet with prompt punishment in the form of revocation of license to do business, Merritt announced. "The time has come," said Merritt, "for the public to know what the retailer pays for his foodstuffs, and the Food Administration does not propose to allow unprofitable profiteering dealers to justify unreasonable profits by pleading war conditions. All dealers operating on fair margins of profit will welcome this move as one of protection and vindication for them."

Calling on the people of America for greater food sacrifices to help win the war, Commissioner Merritt, at a meeting in Native Sons' Hall, San Francisco, last night told in detail the food plans of the government for the coming year. Citing the increased food needs in Europe and recent crop developments as factors in the new food program, he outlined in detail the salient features of the sugar, meat and flour situation.

WHAT MUST BE DONE. He said: "The Food Administration is endeavoring to do two things: first, to fulfill its mission in feeding the people of the United States at reasonable prices and second, to feed the Allies. The prices of this country under war conditions have been fed and their associates. The Food Administration realizes that while in general the wage scale in this country has increased, a vast number of people whose incomes do not enable them to meet the increased price of foodstuffs must make a careful distinction between price fixing and the power to advertise; E. E. Crawford, photographic department.

"Members of the above committee are already busy preparing for their various duties during the three weeks' campaign," said Cummings this morning. Many of the features that will mark the drive, from the standpoint of its publicity and advertising will not only be original, but forceful, and carry with them a wide appeal to prospective Liberty bond owners. The fourth issue of the West's advertising talent in the bay region will be marshalled for the occasion," says Cummings, "and while the general plans of the United States Treasury Department in regard to this phase of the campaign will be followed, originality and effectiveness will play a big part in 'putting the loan over' in Oakland and Alameda county."

SCIENCE TO RESCUE OF PRUNE CROP

TRIBUNE BUREAU
34 EAST SANTA CLARA.
SAN JOSE, Sept. 18. — Additional scientists from the University of California have been placed at the disposal of the community in an attempt to obtain a quick solution of some of the saving and health problems involved in handling the county's prune and tomato crops, which have been practically ruined by the unprecedented recent rainstorm, followed by cold, foggy weather.

Representatives of the United States government are also interested in the local situation. The prune and apricot growers association has been called upon to investigate the possibility of salvaging the prune pits for the use of the Gas Defense division of the Council of National Defense. The pits are needed to make charcoal for gas masks for the army. The element of expense will be the chief item to be considered in this project.

The local growers have expressed great appreciation of the splendid cooperation received on the part of the State university. The situation is so bad that Professor W. T. Clark, of the College of Agriculture, Berkeley, after a preliminary examination of local conditions, sent for Professor F. T. Bieri and Professor N. B. Cruess, of the department of entomology, of that university, to investigate the details of the problem.

They arrived here this morning and some growers are hoping that they will have some remedy which will save a large part of the 50,000,000 or 70,000,000 pounds of fruit which the valley is attempting to save. Fermentation is setting in rapidly and the fruit is rapidly acquiring an odor like one used in military explosives.

Growers who have gathered large quantities of the fruit only to again haul it out and dump it are cautioned not to place any amount of the spoiled fruit around the roots of the trees with the mistaken idea of its having a fertilizer value.

Experiments have already been made with this treatment with the result a decided injury and in many cases the killing of the trees. Either dump in small quantities or take to a place where no injury can be done and place in a heap.

The only explanation given is that the prunes in decaying develop an acid which is killing in effect on all growth.

SYRUP FROM GRAPES WOULD EQUAL MILLIONS

That 250,000 tons of wine and table grapes now worth $4,000,000, whose market will be cut by war prohibition in 1919, if made into syrup, would be equivalent to 40,000 tons of sugar of a present value of about $8,000,000 is the leading statement of a forthcoming bulletin on grape syrup by the Agricultural College of the University of California.

2 DIE, 2 BADLY HURT AS TRAIN HITS OIL AUTO

Charles Thomas, 4402 West street, engineer on the Southern Pacific Portland run, and August Rogers, 1015 Campbell street, his fireman, are in a hospital at Woodland, Rogers in a probable dying condition, as the result of an accident in which the engine crashed into a truck loaded with oil and gasoline, which exploded, enveloping the engine crew and truck drivers in flames.

Officials of the Southern Pacific left Oakland this morning for Woodland to investigate the details of the accident, one of the queerest in the history of the road. The accident occurred at Zamora, a short distance from Woodland.

The train, on its way from Portland to Oakland pier, struck the automobile, a "tank" affair, on the State highway crossing. The two men on the truck were instantly killed. The concussion and heat ignited the oil and asphaltum, which exploded, hurling a sheet of flame into the engine cab and surrounding the locomotive with a pool of blazing oil. The remains of the men in the truck have not been identified.

Passing motorists hurried the injured fireman and engineer to Woodland, where they were treated at the sanitarium there. Both will be in the hospital for some time, according to wires received here today.

"As Good As a Steinway"

Today the subject of pianos can hardly be discussed without using the word "Steinway." The word is practically "legal tender," having passed into the current coin of language. You will hear people say "This piano has the Steinway touch," or "The tone is like a Steinway," or "This instrument is almost as good as a Steinway." In other words, the STEINWAY has been accepted universally as the STANDARD of Piano excellence. (Did you ever hear anybody say "This piano is better than a Steinway?")

DRAFT BOARDS SEND NOTICES TO SELECTIVES

The sending out of questionnaires started today in the Oakland draft boards by order of Adjutant General Borree. They were sent to men of from 19 to 37 years of age. As no order numbers have yet been chosen the age classification is the only one by which the draft boards are being guided. The first questionnaires will be sent out with the "Industrial Instruction slips" which have not yet arrived. These tell of the modifications in occupational exemptions Draft boards, however, say that this omission will not hamper their work, as the questionnaires will bring back all occupational information on which to base classifications.

Provost Marshal General Crowder's order as announced from Washington may leave an opportunity for men to volunteer to be inducted into the navy or the marines, but it is understood that if there are not sufficient volunteers acceptable to the Government to fill the calls the regular draft procedure will be used to make the complement.

Details for the plan for deferred classifications for men in railway service were received today by wire. These workers, like all others, must prove themselves essential to receive deferment. There will be no blanket class exemptions in this occupation or any other.

The drain on the railroad workers for the operation of military railroads in France, say officials, has been large, and that on this account great care will be taken in handling the classifications of railroad men. Untrained men, it is held, cannot be successfully substituted in so exacting an employment as railroading.

The new Crowder order regarding the physicians employed as draft board examiners will probably not affect the local boards, it was learned today, as the majority of the physicians employed as examiners here have been detailed by the surgeon-general to be college instructors in medical colleges about the bay. Such men would probably not be called in any event to accept commissions for army service.

Physicians are subject to draft, as are any other citizens, but when taken into the army will be commissioned as medical officers. Heretofore many draft boards have complained of the loss of examining examiners through doctors accepting army calls. The surgeon-general's policy is to leave enough expert physicians always to fill the needs of local draft boards; the new instructions say, and this fact, together with the medical college situation locally, will insure experts for the bay cities boards.
